6) What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?

Duty of Disclosure

- Pursuant to paragraph 5 of Schedule 9 of the Islamic Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Takaful wholly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make any misrepresentation in answering the questions in the proposal form (or when you apply for this Takaful). You must answer the questions fully and accurately. Failure to have taken reasonable care in answering the questions may result in avoidance of your contract of Takaful, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of the terms or termination of your contract of Takaful.
- aful, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of the terms or termination of your contract of Takaful.
- The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of takaful is entered into, varied or renewed with us.

Takaful Contribution Warranty

- It is fundamental and absolute special condition of this Takaful Certificate that the contribution due must be paid and received by the Company within sixty (60) days from the inception date of this Takaful Certificate/ Endorsement/ renewal Takaful Certificate.
- If this condition is not complied, this Takaful Certificate is automatically cancelled and the Company shall be entitled to the pro rata Takaful Contribution on the period they have been on risk.

Amount to be Covered

- You must ensure that your property is covered at the appropriate amount.
- You may select to cover your property on market value or reinstatement value basis:
 - (a) Market value basis – we will pay the cost of repairing the damaged property less the amount for Wear and Tear and Depreciation.
 - (b) Reinstatement value basis – we will pay the full cost of repairing the damaged property without any deductions being made for Wear and Tear and Depreciation, provided that the sum covered is adequate to cover the total cost of reinstating the property.
- If the amount covered on your property is less than the actual value at the time of loss, you are deemed to be responsible for the difference and bear a proportional share of the loss;
- Excess, being the amount you have to bear before we indemnify you.

Claims Procedure

- On the discovery of any event which may give rise to a claim under the Takaful Certificate you shall forthwith give written notice to the Company stating all particulars then known to you, notify the police immediately, take all practical steps to discover any guilty person and recover the property lost, within thirty (30) days after the event or within such further period as the Company may agree, supply at the request of and free of expense to the Company all such proofs, information and other evidence with respect to the claim as the Company may reasonably require.

Surplus

- The Company will charge a Surplus Administration Charge (SAC) of 50% of the gross distributable surplus arising from the Risk Fund at the end of the financial year. However, the Company may at its discretion and where appropriate charge SAC less than 50% of the gross distributable surplus.
- Any net distributable surplus arising (after deducting the SAC) from the Risk Fund will be allocated in full (100%) to the Takaful Participant. Upon Takaful Certificate expiry, if the amount due to Takaful Participants is less than RM10, the amount shall either be retained in the Risk Fund or donated to charity on behalf of the Takaful participants as an act of good deed. The threshold, method and time of settlement of the surplus distribution shall be defined in the Surplus Management Policy. The threshold is not applicable if the Takaful Participants provided their banking information to the Company.
