6) What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?

Importance of Disclosure

- You must disclose all material facts that you know or ought to know; otherwise your Takaful Certificate may be invalidated;
- All glass should be deemed to be plain and no painting, lettering, embossing, bending, silvering or ornamental work on glass shall be deemed to be insured, unless such information has been declared and agreed by us;
- You should take all reasonable precautions to prevent any damage/breakage to the glass;

Amount to be Covered

- You may cover your property on Market Value or Replacement Value basis –
 - a) Market Value basis – we will pay the cost of repairing the loss or damaged property less the amount of wear, tear and depreciation.
 - b) Replacement Value basis – we will reinstate repair or replace the loss or damaged property without deductions being made for wear, tear or depreciation, provided that the sum covered is adequate to cover the total cost of replacing your property.
- If the amount covered on your property is less than the actual value at the time of loss, you are deemed to be responsible for the difference and bear a proportional share of the loss.
- Excess, being the amount you have to bear before we indemnify you.

Surplus

- The Company will charge a Surplus Administration Charge (SAC) of 50% of the gross distributable surplus arising from the Risk Fund at the end of the financial year. However, the Company may at its discretion and where appropriate charge SAC less than 50% of the gross distributable surplus.
- Any net distributable surplus arising (after deducting the SAC) from the Risk Fund will be allocated in full (100%) to the Takaful Participant. If the amount due to Takaful Participant is less than the threshold, the amount shall either be retained in the Risk Fund or donated to charity on behalf of the Takaful Participants. The threshold and the method and time of settlement of the surplus distribution shall be as defined in the Surplus Management Policy.
